Our Programs

SUCCESS BY SIX
Experts say that 90% of brain development happens in the first five years of life. This initiative funds community partners who target families that live in our most vulnerable parts of the city, ensuring that no family misses out on the educational opportunities they deserve. Minimum donation of $250 qualifies for the Colorado Child Care Contribution Credit, a 50% state tax credit.

COLORADO SPRINGS PROMISE
This initiative equips students to strive for a better future by promoting education, family involvement, workforce engagement and family stability. It provides housing services for their families, computers, access to community resources, food distributions, mentorship and career coaching. CSP is changing lives of students, offering hope and support. It is championing people at the beginning of their journey to prevent a future of poverty.

DOLLY PARTON’S IMAGINATION LIBRARY
Dolly was inspired by her father who never learned to read or write. DPL mails a book each month to children, birth to age five. It develops an early love of reading, prepares children for success in school and provides bonding opportunities as parents read to their children. Minimum donation of $250 qualifies for the Colorado Child Care Contribution Credit, a 50% state tax credit.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT FUND
This fund invests in 25 of the most efficient and effective programs, conducted by the top nonprofits in our city, improving youth success and family stability. Donations from community members fuel this fund, and volunteers drive the decision-making to ensure the donated dollars make the most impact across the region.

2-1-1
Staffed by community resource experts, 2-1-1 is a free, confidential and bilingual phone line that compassionately connects callers in need with personalized referrals for help. For many of the 35,000 people who use 2-1-1, it is a lifeline, sometimes a lifesaver. 2-1-1 is powered by the 35,000 people who use 2-1-1, it is a lifeline, with personalized referrals for help. For many of that compassionately connects callers in need
