Volunteers Needed for Pikes Peak United Way Day of Action

Pikes Peak United Way Partners Help Paint Local Homes

Colorado Springs, Colo. — Pikes Peak United Way is seeking volunteers to help with its Annual Day of Action, a one-day event for volunteers to help those less fortunate in the Pikes Peak region.

On June 21, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., United Way will partner with Brothers Redevelopment, a nonprofit that provides home repair and other services to seniors and disabled people in Colorado. The goal is to paint the exterior of several houses for homeowners who are 60 years old or older and have a disability. The Day of Action is part of a global effort to improve communities and assist neighbors.

Pikes Peak United Way needs volunteers for the effort. Volunteers must be at least 13 years old and must commit to being part of the projects for the entire day. Volunteers can register here to join the group event.

“This day would not be possible without all the amazing volunteers that give their time to help people in our community,” said Cindy Aubrey, Pikes Peak United Way CEO. “Pikes Peak United Way’s Day of Action is a great opportunity to help those in need.”

Pikes Peak United Way’s Day of Action brings thousands of people across the globe to take action to improve their communities by volunteering with United Way. In 37 countries and territories worldwide, United Way creates meaningful volunteer opportunities that make it easy to tackle the issues facing local communities.
