Pikes Peak United Way Ribbon Cutting at Family Success Center

New site focuses on family resources and support

Colorado Springs, Colo. — Pikes Peak United Way will have a ribbon cutting at its Family Success Center, 1520 Verde Drive in Southeast Colorado Springs, on Thursday, Nov. 2 at 3 p.m.

The mission of the Pikes Peak United Way Family Success Center is to serve families and empower community members to become financially stable, gain employment skills, join health and wellness classes and learn the skills needed to accomplish goals. United Way and its community partners are available at the center to remove barriers to resources and services.

“Pikes Peak United Way is excited to bring the community together to learn what will make the center effective and life-changing,” said Cindy Aubrey, CEO of Pikes Peak United Way. “We envision a place where families and students can connect with the resources, training and support for themselves and their children.”

Pikes Peak United Way’s community partners will offer a variety of resources and services through the Family Success Center, including job readiness and training classes, GED/ESL adult education classes, financial empowerment workshops and one-on-one credit counseling, health and wellness education opportunities, health clinic and mental health counselors, and food and basic resources.

At 4 p.m., United Way will host its Public Policy Council Roundtable at the Family Success Center, with Colorado Springs Mayor Yemi Mobalade, the El Paso County Board of Commissioners and Colorado Springs City Council.
