Pikes Peak United Way and CSPD Host Trunk or Treat

Colorado Springs, Colo. — Pikes Peak United Way is presenting a cool twist on Halloween: it's first Trunk or Treat event. Designed to provide a safe way for families to trick-or-treat with their children, United Way has teamed up with presenting sponsor, the Colorado Springs Police Department, as well as Walmart and other community organizations for the event.

Families are invited to trick-or-treat around the trunks of decked-out, decorated cars, trucks and SUVs on Sunday, Oct. 29 from 3 to 5 p.m. at the United Way's Family Success Center, 1520 Verde Drive in Colorado Springs.

Children can play games and gather candy, while the adults learn about family resources from United Way and its partners.

"We are thankful to our partners to help us create a family friendly, fun, safe way to celebrate Halloween," said Cindy Aubrey, CEO of Pikes Peak United Way. "This year, it's at our new Family Success Center, which will celebrate its grand opening next week. We believe in families at United Way and in bringing people together to build community."
